

Letter of Reference for Purdy Powers & Company

November 2, 2022

We have had the pleasure of working Purdy Powers & Company for several years. In 2018, we selected Purdy Powers to provide business advisory and tax preparation services and assist with set up for our Quickbooks Online accounting system. Since our initial start-up, Purdy Powers has provided ongoing accounting, tax, and business advisory support as our company continues to grow and encounter increasingly more complex transactions.
