To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to provide this letter of reference for Jonathan Turcotte, who has been an invaluable asset to Blackstone Point Oyster Company. Over the course of our work together, Jonathan has played a crucial role in enhancing our financial and business operations, providing expertise and guidance that have greatly contributed to our company's growth and stability.

Jonathan has helped us streamline our accounting and bookkeeping processes, ensuring that our financial records are up to date and clearly organized. His work has provided us with accurate and transparent financials, allowing us to make informed business decisions. Additionally, he has developed financial forecasts and comprehensive 1, 3, and 5-year business plans that have given us a structured roadmap for future growth.

Beyond financial management, Jonathan has assisted us in assembling financing packages and production forecasts, key components in securing funding and planning for operational expansion. His expertise in aquaculture lease applications and amendments has been instrumental in allowing us to expand our operations efficiently and compliantly.

Jonathan's general business guidance has been an incredible asset, helping us strategize and manage growth in a sustainable manner. His insights and recommendations have ensured that our business remains agile, well-prepared, and positioned for long-term success.

I highly recommend Jonathan Turcotte to any business seeking a knowledgeable, reliable, and strategic financial consultant. His expertise, professionalism, and dedication make him an invaluable resource for any company looking to strengthen its financial and operational foundations.

Sincerely,

Brendan Parsons
