

Zulieve Law, Client Reference

I've used Mr. Zulieve as our corporate and my personal attorney for three years and consider Mr. Zulieve my all-purpose attorney. He has successfully handled a wide variety of legal issues ranging from real estate matters to publishing contracts. His ability to be so versatile has been a real asset to a small firm such as ours. Andy is unfailingly polite and respectful which is appreciated when dealing with matters that can be both unpleasant and stressful. Additionally, he always replies to our different queries very promptly-there's no waiting and worrying.

We are always happy to recommend Mr. Zulieve to both clients and colleagues as someone who is pleasant to deal with and who will represent their interests honestly.
